In the quiet and green residential area of Adsubia, one of the most popular locations of J  vea, you will find this beautiful new build villa that combines the charm of a traditional Mediterranean finca with the comfort and quality of modern living. Surrounded by mature pine trees and adjacent to a green area, this property enjoys exceptional privacy and tranquillity, while the Arenal beach, the port of J  vea, international schools, golf courses and all daily amenities are within a short distance. Upon entering, you immediately notice the warm Mediterranean appearance. Natural materials, wooden ceiling beams, elegant arches and large windows create an attractive home in which indoor
