Located in Residencial Kalmias, in Cumbre del Sol, Villa Olive is a contemporary home designed to maximise natural light, comfort and its connection with the outdoor spaces. The villa is arranged over different levels, adapting to the topography of the plot and offering a functional layout with clearly defined living areas. The main floor brings together the day area in a modern open-plan concept, featuring a living-dining room and integrated kitchen connected through large windows to the main terrace, swimming pool and outdoor areas. This level is designed to enhance indoor-outdoor living and provide a comfortable, social residential experience, with spacious, flowing
