DESCRIPTION Please note - these are all the images that we have and read the description carefully as this property may not suit someone with limited mobility. Also, this property was rented out. I have now put the images up after they have left at the bottom in the photos section. Introducing this urban property located in La Barraca D'Aigües Vives, in an elevated (uphill) location in close proximity to La Galiana Golf Course and the British School of Alzira. This exceptional property is meticulously maintained and offers picturesque views of the surrounding countryside. The unique design of this home sets it apart. As you step into the patio/terrace, you
