This is the ideal buy for someone who wants to do some serious farming! The land is currently used for olives and cereal crops, but would lend itself to any form of agriculture or livestock. As a bonus, it enjoys some of the most beautiful views you could wish for. On the property there is a small house with an open plan living/kitchen area with open fire and a shower room, with one very large bedroom upstairs. Given the size of the land it should be possible to extend the current property with the appropriate licences. Certainly, stables andd agricultural buildings would not be a problem. There is an original...(Ask for More Details!)
